

Policy for Connecting with the BABICM Membership

The following lists how BABICM members may be contacted directly (via direct mail)

- BABICM Training Events
- Research -undertaken by BABICM or agreed for dissemination by council/research group?
- Information on practice around brain injury and complex needs- written by PPMG or agreed for circulation by PPMG or council.
- BABICM guidelines
- Legislation changes relevant to brain injury and complex case management
- Requests from the membership (ie to identify specialist requests, language spoken etc)

Advertisements will be published in the following formats

- BABICM members magazine
- BABICM website
- Event pack inserts and brochures

External provider training events

- May be publicised on Social Media (LinkedIn, Twitter and Facebook) at BABICM's discretion.

Published November 19th 2020